Why or why not?

The mission of Covenant Classical School is to provide an exceptional education for children as image bearers of God in order that they might enjoy and reflect his wisdom and beauty. This wisdom and beauty are reflected above all in Jesus Christ, who is our only confidence and our covenant.

Since we hold the image of God in our relationships, our bodies, as well as in our abilities to choose and reason, we believe that social, physical, spiritual and intellectual development should lie at the heart of our renewal in that image. Because these aspects cannot finally be separated from one another, we commit ourselves to education that is integrative.

We provide an integrative education by taking an approach that is classical in both delivery and content. We embrace and emphasize the interconnectedness of knowledge. The disciplines of math, science, grammar, composition, literature, history, geography, Latin, Bible, theology, logic, rhetoric, music, art, and physical education are intentionally woven together within a seamless curriculum. For us classical education is not driven by any nostalgia for the western past, but a willingness to be shaped by great works - works which have proven themselves as beautiful and true over time.

Since God is the one for whom, from whom and through whom all knowledge exists, we believe that God's self-revelation in the scriptures should stand as the basis of all learning, exploration and reasoning. Because these same scriptures have been historically interpreted through the creeds of Christian orthodoxy, we commit ourselves to education that is confessional.

We provide a confessional education by modeling a discipleship of life and mind. We hold ourselves as members of a Christ-honoring community - board, faculty, staff, parents, and students alike - to a high standard of conduct and behavior. Within the classroom we strive to foster a culture of mutual respect and encouragement, humility, and joy; we seek an atmosphere that is well-ordered and warm. Testing all our judgments against the touchstone of God's Word, we hold out the scriptures as the foundation and guide for all that we do, say and think. Because our teachers see discovery as exhilarating and a cause for awe, our students are also excited to learn. In a supportive community our students gain the experience of expressing their ideas with eloquence and confidence.

Since the goal of the Christian life is not self-advancement but service, we believe that all learning is likewise to be undertaken for the sake of the gospel, the church and ultimately the world. Because Christ has called us to lay down our lives for such purposes greater than ourselves, we commit ourselves to education that is missional.

We provide a missional education by modeling a life lived for others and by drawing students into the critical analysis of information and ideas. Our teachers are living examples, role models of wisdom and the truly beautiful life; they inspire students to strive for the biblical definition of greatness, namely, to 'be a servant of all'. Relying on small classes and dialogical teaching methods, we involve every student within the context of community. Ultimately, students will be poised to grasp their own location within history, and thereby be prepared to evaluate, debate and engage competing ideas and philosophies - all from a biblical viewpoint. True engagement, however, does not occur apart from our actively reaching out, that is, our purposely making ourselves relationally, physically, spiritually and mentally present to a fallen world.

I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations. (Isaiah 42:6)

Because God has bound himself to us through a covenant, we bind ourselves to the pursuit of truth, God himself, and our mission in Christ.

foedus nobis oportet - the covenant binds us

WE BELIEVE in one sovereign God, eternally existing in three persons: the everlasting Father, His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, and the Holy Spirit, the giver of life; and we believe that God created the Heavens and the earth out of nothing by His spoken word.

WE BELIEVE that God has revealed Himself and His truth in the created order, in the Scriptures, and supremely in Jesus Christ; and that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are verbally inspired by God and inerrant in the original writing, so that they are fully trustworthy and of supreme and final authority in all they say.

WE BELIEVE that Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and was true God and true man, existing in one person and without sin; and we believe in the resurrection of the crucified body of our Lord, in His ascension into heaven.

WE BELIEVE that our first parents sinned by rebelling against God's revealed will and thereby incurred both physical and spiritual death, and that as a result all human beings are born with a sinful nature that leads them to sin in thought, word, and deed.

WE BELIEVE that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures, as a representative and substitutionary sacrifice, triumphing over all evil; and that all who believe in Him are justified by His shed blood and forgiven of all their sins.

WE BELIEVE that all who receive the Lord Jesus Christ by faith are born again of the Holy Spirit and thereby become children of God and are enabled to offer spiritual worship acceptable to God.

WE BELIEVE that the one, holy, universal Church is the body of Christ and is composed of the communities of Christ's people.

WE BELIEVE in the blessed hope that Jesus Christ will soon return to this earth, personally, visibly, and unexpectedly, in power and great glory, to gather His elect, to raise the dead bodily, to judge the nations, and to bring His Kingdom to fulfillment.
